PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Genealogy Beauty, LLC and TaikiUSA are pleased to host COCKTAILS FOR A CAUSE --for Children's Future Organization

New York, NY, September 8th, 2015 - Genealogy Beauty, LLC and TaikiUSA are pleased to host COCKTAILS FOR A CAUSE for Children's Future <http://www.childrensfuture.org> and the Children's Future Learning Center which is the nucleus for all of Children's Future's work in Cambodia.

More than 230 children come to the Center every day. Through the diligent work of the Center's dedicated staff and volunteers, which includes teachers, social workers and housemothers, The Learning Center is a place children can learn and grow in a safe and nurturing environment. From The Learning Center, the organization also reaches out into the community, working with families, local businesses and the local government to ensure the success of each child. An extraordinary thing happens when a child's needs are met... when their stomachs are full and they can wake up every day knowing they are safe... when they have the opportunity to attend school with their peers. They become more than just children with hope for the future. They become the role models for one another and leaders in their community and the cycle of poverty is not only broken, it is transformed into a cycle of change. Cambodia was a battleground during the Vietnam War between the South and North Vietnamese and U.S. Forces and then suffered a horrible genocide after the Vietnam War as the Khmer Rouge swept through the country and slaughtered over 2 million of the countries intellectuals, religious leaders and community leaders. This was a purposeful attempt to wipe out the foundation of the culture itself – which Children’s Future is trying to help rebuild – one child and one family at a time. All funds from the event will go directly to Children’s Future to help the Children and People of Cambodia.

This 1st Annual Event will feature Jazz, Performance Art, a Chanteuse – Deborah Lippmann, Hors d’oeuvres and Caviar by Erika McCallin’s Simply Delicious, Champagne, a Silent Auction, Charity, Cocktails, Good Will, and a Dessert Bar by My Stylized Events!

This exclusive event will be by invitation only and free of charge to clients, friends and vendors of Children’s Future, Genealogy Beauty, LLC and TaikiUSA.

Genealogy Beauty, LLC and TaikiUSA stand together in their commitment to bring beauty to the world, not just through excellent, ethical, quality products, but also through making all people feel beautiful, cared for and important.
