ANGELA KAZIMIR JOINS TAIKIUSA AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF SALES

Montvale, NJ—TaikiUSA, a science-driven, innovative beauty tool and product supplier of cosmetic and skincare solutions, has announced that Angela Kazimir has joined TaikiUSA in the new position of Executive Director of Sales.

Angela comes to Taiki from Berry Global, where she was a Global Strategic Accounts Director. During her years at Berry, Kazimir supported some of the largest consumer products companies in the Beauty & Personal Care industry focusing on rigid packaging, developing intrinsic tube projects, and managing various teams internally and externally to achieve success.

Previously, Angela worked at TaikiUSA as an Account Manager. Angela returns to TaikiUSA to manage the sales organization and use her industry experience and professional skills to further develop and motivate the team. She will be responsible for all aspects of sales management and training as well as the Customer Experience.

“I am so happy to be back – it’s great to be working with many familiar faces at Taiki and reconnecting with many in the Cosmetic and Skincare sector again,” says Kazimir.

“This is an important strategic addition to our team, supporting our next stage of growth. Angela’s depth of experience in business development with so many of the major global brands in our industry is critical to expanding our service to customers and further developing our sales team,” according to Jim Perry, President and CEO of TaikiUSA.

TaikiUSA has worked with brands of all sizes for over 30 years to develop safe and effective skincare and make-up beauty tools and products. Taiki incorporates the latest technology into each product --using science-based knowledge to develop new innovations and improve on existing ones. We provide full-service consultative support to help brands from concept and design to logistics, manufacturing and delivery.
