

CUSTOM DISPENSING PACKAGES

Finding the right packaging solution is key to a successful product.

Choosing the right dispensers:

Beauty and skincare product packaging is just as crucial as your formula and not for the reasons you may think. While packaging can relay brand aesthetics, it also provides:

- ✓ Formula Protection
- ✓ Product Performance
- ✓ Customer Satisfaction
- ✓ Sustainability

You have invested a great deal of time and resources developing your formula, and to ensure it performs as intended, you must choose the right type of package.

Different types of products need different packaging solutions

The optimal packaging can vary based on the type of beauty or skincare product, formula viscosity, and application technique. Taiki's wide selection of dispensing packages were developed to cover every need.
